LOCK JAW FATAL TO COUNTY MAN

Harry Smith, widely known Resident of Wensville, Dies in Harrisburg Hospital Despite Vigorous Efforts to Save his Life.

After lingering for a week in the Harrisburg Hospital suffering with an aggravated case of lock jaw, J. Harry Smith, a widely known resident of Wensville, died at 5:40 Sunday morning aged 39 years, 1 month and 11 days.

Mr. Smith was helping to push a coal wagon at Wensville several weeks ago when his hand got caught between the front wheels and the wagon box, tearing off a large part of flesh from the back of the hand. He later caught cold and lock jaw developed. Dr. William E. Wolf, of Arendtsville, took him to the Harrisburg Hospital in the hope of saving his life by the injection of anti-toxin. For several days a slight improvement was noted but his condition later turned for the worse. During the treatment, he was given 300,000 units of the serum.

Mr. Smith was a prominent resident of Menallen Township, a member of the Lutheran Church at Wensville, a farmer by occupation, residing on his own farm near Wensville. He was also an intelligent and progressive member of the Menallen school board.

Mrs. Smith died in July 1909 and he leaves two sons, Charles Albert Smith and Robert Miles Smith, aged 9 and 4 years. He also leaves his father, Jacob C. Smith, of Wensville, and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Willis Eppelman, of Aspers; Harvey Smith, Mrs. Elias Hoffman, Franklin Smith and William Smith, of Wensville; and Rev. Mervin E. Smith, of Bloesville.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, meeting at the house at 9:30. Services in the Benderville Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. Joseph Arnold. Interment in the Benderville cemetery. Friends are invited to attend without further notice.

J. EDWARD SCHRIVER

Jacob Edward Schriver died at his home on York street Sunday morning at five o'clock from heart trouble aged 72 years, 3 months and 4 days.

He leaves his wife who was Miss Sidney Schriver before marriage; two daughters, Mrs. John Eckert, of Gettysburg; and Miss Edna Schriver, of Philadelphia; one son, William Schriver, of Chambersburg. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Levi Spangler, of Biglerville.

Funeral from the house Tuesday afternoon at 1:30. The interment in Evergreen cemetery will be private.

CHARLES W. MILLER

Charles Wesley Miller died at his home in Idaville Sunday morning at 5 o'clock from congestion of the brain aged about 55 years.

He is survived by his wife and four children: Guy Miller, of Rutherford; Mrs. Cora Boswell, of Waynesboro; and Parker and Brom, at home; also by his mother, Mrs. Abby Miller, and three brothers, John W. Miller, of York Springs; Edward Miller, of York, and Brinton Miller, of Dubuque, Iowa.

Funeral Wednesday morning at 9:30 from his late home. Interment at Idaville Evangelical church, Rev. A. L. Burkett officiating.

DR. GEORGE M. DYESS

Rev. Dr. George McKallip Dyess, professor in the department of history in the University of Pittsburgh, was found dead Sunday in bed, at Leechburg, where he resided. Dr. Dyess had been ill since Thanksgiving. He was a graduate of Gettysburg College in 1884.

MERCHANTS WANT WINTER WEATHER

Say Present High Temperatures are Keeping away the Christmas Buyers and Making it Difficult to Dispose of Heavy Goods.

"We'll take a little sleet, some snow and slush, falling temperatures and some west winds," said a Gettysburg merchant this morning when he entered The Times office and was asked "What may we do for you?"

All the Gettysburg business men, and merchants in the county are complaining vigorously over the backward season. They claim such a thing as selling heavy suits and overcoats while spring-like temperatures prevail is almost an impossibility, and the Christmas spirit in regard to early shopping is a missing quantity when no snow appears for Santa Claus and his reindeers. And there is no relief in sight.

No indications of a cold wave to cross the country this coming week can be seen at present, said the Weather Bureau in its weekly forecast. Continuation of temperatures near or above the seasonal average is predicted, with precipitation generally light and local over most of the country; but in the Pacific States rains are expected to be frequent.

As a result it is feared that all Christmas business is going to come with a rush the last few days. Buyers will have difficulty in the crowds, getting what they want, and merchants and their clerks will be taxed to the utmost to care for them. All are urging early shopping but only a small proportion heed the request.

The cold weather is sure to come, they argue in selling winter clothing, and it's best to take your pick when the stock is large. There are now only nine shopping days until Christmas and this week, with cold weather or warm, is expected to be a big one for the merchants. The displays of novelties for the holidays have never been larger and better, the stores are in Christmas attire and shopping is as much of a pleasure as it is a business.

BIG FOREST FIRE

Largest Blaze in History of Frederick County on Catoctin Property.

There is raging in Frederick county, on the Catoctin Furnace property, one of the largest fires in the history of the county. Forest wardens, with large forces, fought the flames all day Sunday, but a high wind drove the blaze ahead and the belt of fire is probably three miles in length. In all from 500 to 800 acres of land have been burned over. For years there has been a large fire on the Catoctin Furnace property annually. Many people contend that the mountain is set on fire by huckleberry pickers, as a large crop of the berries always follows the ground burned over.

Sunday a most stubborn mountain fire near Doub, in the southern section of the county, was gotten under control. The fire had burned two days. From 300 to 400 acres were burned over. About 60 cords of cut wood were burned and much young timber destroyed.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE

College Church Sunday School Held its Christmas Exercises.

The College Church Sunday School held its Christmas exercises on Sunday evening in the presence of a large audience. The church looked especially well in its decorations of evergreens and poinsettias. The entertainment consisted of exercises by the beginners' and primary departments, addresses by two members of the Brotherhood and the usual Christmas songs. The exercises will be given in the Sunday School room on the afternoon before Christmas when a portion of Sunday evening's exercises will be repeated.

RABBIT SEASON STILL IN FORCE

Rabbit Hunters out in Smaller Numbers Every Day. Farmers Find New Law was an Advantage to them in Protecting their Land.

The number of hunters in the field for rabbits is gradually decreasing as the season wanes. The open season for the killing of rabbits will close on December 31, that day inclusive. There have been many inquiries made concerning the date of the closing season by persons unfamiliar with the hunting laws of this year. The open season for the killing of common quail, some times called the Virginia partridge, closed on last Saturday. Bear and raccoons can be killed up until January 1, that day inclusive.

Thousands of rabbits have fallen before the marksmanship of Adams county gunners this season. Rabbits were reported unusually plentiful at the opening of the season and many were killed during the first three weeks. There was not as much trouble between the town gunners and the farmers as was first expected. The latter were off-times lenient and, when requested, many would grant permission to the gunner to hunt on their land providing certain reasonable conditions were observed.

The farmers have been benefited by the new law, which gives them exclusive right to hunt on their own land by placing trespass notices at conspicuous points. This was taken advantage of by hundreds of farmers throughout the county, and instead of having to go out the first week of the season to "beat" the town and other hunters to the game, they were enabled to hunt whenever they could spare time from their work.

GETS OUT SOON

Sentence Reduced from Thirty to Four Years.

On February 7th, 1910 Robert McIntire was sentenced by the Franklin County court to the Eastern Penitentiary for a term of from 7 1/2 to 30 years. McIntire had been arrested for a petty offense but in Court talked too much and admitted to having committed the Embich robbery at Scotland and other crimes and had been in the Penitentiary for several other offenses. This caused the long sentence to be inflicted.

It has since been ascertained that the charges of robbery, etc., were not in the bill of indictment, as they were not known at the time. On this technicality McIntire secured a writ of habeas corpus and was brought back to Franklin county on Friday night by an officer of the Penitentiary and confined in Franklin County jail over night. On Saturday morning he was taken into Court and sentenced to from three years and eleven months to four years. This will release him on January 7th next, quite a reduction in the former sentence.

It has been learned that McIntire was not guilty of as many crimes as he had stated, hence the reduction.

Determining to ask the Frederick county delegation to have enacted into law a provision providing for the closing of all saloons in Frederick city and county at 10 o'clock each night, excepting Saturday night and at 11 o'clock on Saturday night, and to have all screens removed from in front so that an unobstructed view of the interior of saloons may be had at all times, the Frederick County Anti-Saloon League, at its annual meeting did plenty to arouse the liquor interests.

BASKET BALL FANS PLEASED

Playing Floor at College is Enlarged by Cutting away of North Gallery Circus Seats at the One End. Better Games Promised.

The cramped basket ball floor at the college gymnasium is to be a thing of the past and games will be played there this winter with far more freedom and comfort than at any time since the sport was introduced at the local institution.

The entire north end of the gallery and running track has been removed, lengthening the playing space by just that much room and giving the floor the regulation length. It is still too narrow to comply with requirements but that is not so serious a handicap. In order to make up for the loss in seating capacity, occasioned by the removal of this section of the gallery, "circus seats" are to be placed at the south end, so that several tiers of benches will be provided for spectators.

A further change in arrangements in the gymnasium provides for the screening of the entire floor so that there will be no out-of-bounds and the ball will always be in play, insuring a faster and a better game, while also protecting the spectators on the first floor.

The schedule as announced ten days ago provides for a number of good games here and, with these additional facilities, the popular mid-winter sport is expected to be better patronized than ever before.

PLAN WORKS WELL

York Springs Lad Writes Weekly Letter Telling of his Progress for Good.

When several weeks ago his father took Harry P. Panas of York Springs to Parole Officer Bentley, of Carlisle, stating that he was incorrigible and asking that the lad be sent to a house of refuge, Mr. Bentley took him before Judge Sadler, the Judge instead of sending the boy to Glen Mills or Huntingdon, tried a new plan. He gave the boy a fatherly talk, replete with the best advice and then sent him to his home stating however that a weekly letter, countersigned by the father telling of the boy's progress should be sent him.

The wisdom of the plan has been proved. Every week the letters told of improvement in the boy who was not naturally bad but who had been led astray. The last letter was received Friday. It said simply, "Everything is all right" and was signed by both the boy and his father.

"This is only one of a number of cases" says the Carlisle Herald, "when Judge Sadler has succeeded in causing truly remarkable reformations by placing boys and girls who have been brought before him on parole instead of confining them in a reformatory and is another instance of the wisdom and success of the plan".

GUERNSEY

Guernsey—The Walter Loyal Temperance Legion held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Griest, Guernsey, on Saturday afternoon.

A brief business meeting was followed by an interesting and instructive program under the general topic "Social Purity", which may be summarized thus: The work along Social Purity lines was started by the W. C. T. U. in 1885 with Frances Willard as secretary. At that time laws governing social life were criminally deficient. Since that time much work has been done in making new laws and creating organizations. On Oct. 11, 1913, the Sixth International Purity Congress was held in the Middle West. The aims of this Federation are education in home, church, etc., legislative and rescue work. A great work has also been done towards abolishing the white slave trade, the existence of which was so ably exposed by "The New Voice" organ of the Prohibition Party.

The L. T. L. takes an interest in this work on the ground that eminent physicians declare that social evil lies at the door of the drink habit and Jane Addams, of Hull House, says, "The White Slave trade, the human slavery, can never be abolished until the liquor traffic is prohibited".

IRON SPRINGS

Iron Springs—The third educational meeting of the teachers of Hamilton township was held at Weeping Willow school, Zella Currens, teacher, on Friday evening the 12th. The meeting was opened by Charles Frey, the president. Owing to the absence of Clara Moore the secretary; J. Harry Pecher was appointed secretary pro tem.

The school house was crowded so that a large number were compelled to stand on the inside and outside of the room. Songs and recitations were rendered by the pupils. The school room was decorated beautifully. "How to Reach a Naughty Boy" was discussed by Wilson Hummelbaugh, and J. Floyd Slaybaugh, from Butler township. Mr. Slaybaugh gave a very appropriate address upon the subject. The former speaker gave quite a talk upon the experiences of a teacher along that line of thought. "How to Teach History" was discussed by Charles Frey and Wilson Hummelbaugh.

The following teachers were present: Charles Frey, Harry Pecher, Percy Walker, Wilson Hummelbaugh and Zella Currens.

AUTO LICENSES

Gettysburg Owners May now Secure Tags for 1914.

The tags for those entitled to automobile licenses next year are all ready for shipment but delay in issuing the license cards has prevented the sending. Chief Boyd, in charge of the automobile bureau of the State Highway Department, has a large force of clerks at work getting out the cards, and began shipping to-day in 500 lots. The cards go by mail, the tags, being of metal, by parcel post. About 25,000 will be sent out during the first two weeks.

BLIGHT REPORT

Will Deplore Lack of Funds for Further Work.

The final report of the Chestnut Blight Commission, which was legislated out of existence because it received no appropriation from the state to continue its work, is now being prepared by Oliver Schock, one of the secretaries. It will deal with the work of the Commission, and deplore the fact that it was not continued in the service of the state.

BARBARITIES CAUSE ALARM

Eyes of U. S. Officials on Huerta and Spain.

THE DICTATOR IS ENRAGED

Mexican President Says Admiral Fletcher Inaugurated Intervention and Washington Watches For Next Move.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Barbarities at Tampico, crime and oppression at Chihuahua, and the reported enragement of Huerta at the United States over an act of Rear Admiral Fletcher are the elements which lend gravity to the Mexican situation.

The latest dispatches from Rear Admiral Fletcher announce that firing has ceased at Tampico and that all the foreigners who desired refuge have received it.

Secretary of State Bryan is sending George D. Carothers, formerly consul at Torreon, Mex., as special representative of the United States, with a protest to General Villa against the latter's harsh treatment of the Spanish residents of that city. Carothers carries instructions to make vigorous demands upon General Villa for decent and humane treatment of all foreigners in Chihuahua and the respect of their persons and their property.

The interest of officials at Washington now centers upon Mexico City. The dictator gave vent to a statement on Saturday that by ordering a cessation of the bombardment from both sides over parts of Tampico proper Admiral Fletcher inaugurated an actual move toward intervention. Huerta contends, it is reported, that Fletcher's action hindered the Federalists so that they were unable to achieve a decisive victory over their attackers.

If this contention is in reality held by Huerta, according to certain officials in Washington, it may mean that the dictator's next step shall be an armed move against the United States.

Shocking reports from the fugitive Spaniards who were driven out of Chihuahua by command of General Francisco Villa, the rebel commander, have resulted in stirring official protests from the Spanish ambassador. A Spanish warship already is on the way to Mexican waters.

General Villa's attitude is that he shall confiscate the property of all Spaniards and shall not guarantee the safety of their lives. His men are reported to have exacted heavy tribute from residents of this nationality and to have looted Spanish churches.

The situation resulted in a conference of the rebel leaders at Juarez, at which it was explained that General Villa, being a military commander rather than the head of a civil government, had acted without sufficient advice. It was decided that General Carranza should be asked to start immediately for Chihuahua, where hereafter he might determine the future policies of the revolution after personal conferences with Villa. The meaning decided that Villa, by his acts toward foreigners, had precipitated a serious situation.

Rear Admiral Fletcher cabled the navy department from Tampico, via Vera Cruz, as follows:

"Constitutionalists have withdrawn and fighting has ceased. More Federal reinforcements arrived. Four Mexican Federal gunboats now in river. Edward Pinlay, an American, wounded in ankle and in the hospital, doing well. Medical officers from U. S. S. Tacoma and U. S. S. Chester are helping in the military hospital with about 200 Mexican wounded."

PANKHURST AGAIN JAILED

Police Catch Militants Napping When Leader Returns From Paris.

London, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, while returning from Paris, where she went to visit her daughter, Miss Christabel Pankhurst, was rearrested by Scotland Yard detectives shortly after the train left Dover.

The action of the police was so unexpected by the militants that they had made no preparations to safeguard their leader by a detachment from their recently organized suffragette army.

She was hurried into a motor car and driven to the Holloway jail, where soon afterward groups of suffragettes drove up in taxicabs and started a concert outside.

Dispatches say that Rear Admiral Fletcher, commanding the American warships at Tampico Bay, forbade the Federal gunboats to open fire on the town, as this would endanger the lives of non-combatants.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK IS FAVORABLE

Experts Don't Blame New Tariff For Business.

New York, Dec. 15.—Expert opinions as to the effect of the operation of the Underwood-Simmons tariff act, signed by President Wilson on Oct. 3, comes from leading manufacturers and business men in all parts of the country.

Although here and there unfavorable conditions are reported in industrial centers, men interviewed are not satisfied that the new tariff regulations are altogether responsible. They declare that the law has not been in force sufficiently long to form exact conclusions. All along the line, however, there is a hopeful tone that after the country is adjusted to the new conditions, everything may work out for the best.

From the south and the far west word is received that business is normal, but busy. Pittsburgh feels the pinch of slackening up, and the ranks of the unemployed in Chicago have been recruited by thousands of unskilled laborers, discharged by the railroads and industrial centers.

A pessimistic spirit is shown by interviews from New England cities, where confidence has been largely disturbed by the depreciation of railroad and other securities in which thrifty Yankees have long invested their savings.

Secretary Redfield points out that the threatened flooding of the markets of the country with the alleged cheap wares of Europe in October, following the enactment of the tariff law, did not happen.

Three barges have been towed through, and the big ladder dredge Corozal will be taken through. Within the next few days two ladder dredges, two suction dredges and three dipper dredges will be concentrated at the north end.

TRIES POISON AND HANGING

Wilmington Police Find Would-Be Suicide Suspended by Belt in Cell.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 15.—Louis Brian, thirty-six years old, who recently tried to end his life by swallowing poison in Chester, Pa., tried to hang himself with his belt when placed in the police station in Wilmington.

He drew the strap around his neck so tightly that when he was discovered he was unconscious. He will be detained until his sanity is determined by physicians.

Victim of Hunter's Gun Dies.

39 VACCINATED IN SMOKING CAR

Man Suffering With Smallpox Their Coach Mate.

POLICE ENFORCE OBEDIENCE

With Guards Posted at Doors, Indignant Passengers Are Forced to Bare Their Arms to Physicians in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 15.—With guards posted at both ends of a smoking car attached to a train which arrived at Broad street station from Pittsburg, thirty-nine men, quarantined in the coach, bared their arms to the vaccine quills plied by four physicians of the bureau of health as a precaution against a wholesale spread of smallpox.

The doors of the smoker were locked when the conductor was notified by telegram that a passenger who left the train at Huntington, Pa., was suffering with smallpox in an advanced form.

There was intense excitement in the car when the men were made prisoners, and the majority rebelled most strongly against being vaccinated. Passengers bound for New York were carried past West Philadelphia station, where many were due to make connections, and a large number of the men had left their wives and families in the rear coaches in order to enjoy a smoke.

Threats of violence were made when the physicians, armed with the vaccine and fumigating apparatus, boarded the car in response to a call sent to Dr. Cairns, of the bureau of health, and guards were placed at the doors.

The women whose husbands had become separated from them by the quarantine in the smoker became hysterical in the train shed and were cared for by the women guides of the Travelers' Aid society.

The babel of angry voices and the shouts of the angry prisoners could be heard throughout the train shed, and hundreds of waiting passengers looked at the car from a respectful distance while the surging men within attempted to evade being vaccinated.

The smallpox victim was a foreigner, who boarded the train at Tyrone, Pa. After he alighted at Huntington he became so ill that a physician was summoned, who learned at a glance that the disease had reached its most virulent form.

A report was immediately wired to officials at Broad street station, who in turn sent orders to the train crew to permit none to escape from the smoking car.

The physicians were reinforced by the entire squad of special policemen and watchmen at the Broad street station. It was made plain to the prisoners that freedom could only be obtained by vaccination. Passengers on the other coaches had no idea of what was happening, as the quarantined men beat frantically upon the window panes and doors and shouted demands to be freed.

Several women tried to pass the guards and join their husbands, and this added to the excitement. They were finally induced to wait in a group at the gateway, and as each hubby made his appearance holding his arm in a manner to avoid bumps he was embraced by the waiting spouse.

Only twelve of the passengers had come all the way through from Pittsburg. The majority of the vaccinated men had boarded the train at Harrisburg and Lancaster, long after the smallpox victim had left the train, and for this reason they protested violently against the vaccine precautions.

KILLED BY POLICEMAN

Officer, Harassed by Gang, Shoots One In the Crowd.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 15.—After a thrilling fight with a band of rowdies, who beat and shot at him, Policeman Francis Walsh shot and instantly killed James Stevens, thirty-five years old.

As Stevens fell to the ground lifeless, his companions fired another volley at Policeman Walsh and then all fled.

Walsh was on his way home when he heard shots. While investigating he was attacked. A blow felled him. He struggled desperately, and after kicking, punching and choking several men, managed to regain his feet. After two bullets had whizzed by his head Walsh fired and Stevens dropped.

Jealousy Fatal to Three.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Three persons were killed and one woman fatally wounded in a millinery store here. The divorced husband of the wounded woman shot and killed the proprietor of the store and the latter's wife, shot his own former wife and then committed suicide. The dead are Louis F. Nieman, Mrs. Nieman and Emanuel Harner, the slayer.

Killed In Fight.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Michael Lapita, formerly known as one of the "Barons of the Underworld," was killed in a fight in his home at 2113 South Clark street. He and two friends, Reno Schavone and Frank Chegre, were the only persons in the house when the doorbell was rung.

LITTLE CHOIR SISTER

HEY called her the Choir Sister, because she was the daughter of the Choir Mother. Children have mothers to mend their clothes and see that their faces and hands are clean before they march into church. The Choir Mother was the wife of the janitor of the church where the choir sang, and so kind was she that all the boys loved her.

It was easy to like the Choir Sister, too, because she played ball with the boys before rehearsals. And those nights when the Choir Master let them invite their friends in for games she was the girl most of them wanted for a partner.

So anyone can see why the boys were blue when Ricky Jackson, her brother, came into the choir room Christmas eve and said:

"Mildred (short for Mildred, her real name) 'Isn't going to have any Christmas!'"

The boys stopped right there, some with their choir clothes only half on. If they didn't find out right away what was the matter with the Choir Sister, the Christmas eve service would have to go without their singing.

So Ricky told how she had come down that morning with a funny tired feeling, and sniffling and hot cheeks, and had to stay in bed, and how she cried when she thought of the tree she was going to miss.

You can see why that Christmas eve service was not as happy as it should have been for these boys. Afterward, when the tree was lighted with the starlike candles and the Sunday school room was filled with boys and girls opening their presents, each choir boy was thinking of the Choir Sister, lying there at home, wishing she could be with them.

Next day people in church thought the boys sang the Christmas hymns better than ever. But the people did not know that just before the boys marched in the Choir Master had told them a plan by which the Choir Sister would have a Christmas she would never forget.

At evening the janitor's doorbell rang. The Choir Mother opened it, and in came the Choir Master and a lot of boys with red cheeks and smiling faces. Back of the others four of the biggest boys dragged through the door a small Christmas tree.

They set the tree up in the parlor. Everyone was still for they didn't want the Choir Sister to know anything about it till it was all ready. Soon the candles were in place, and the trimmings, and they lit the candles, and each boy placed a package under the tree, and then a wonderful thing happened!

The door opened and the Choir Mother and the Choir Master walked in, carrying between them a little stretcher, and upon that lay the Choir Sister.

You should have seen her face! You could almost see the light of the candles sparkling in it, so happy was she! The boys held their breath, wondering what she would say. Her little cheeks glowed as she sat up straight and held her arms out toward the tree. And her eyes sparkled as she cried:

"Oh! My Christmas tree!"

Then she turned to the boys, and said:

"Oh! My Dear Choir Brothers!"

Then she cried a little, just because she was happy, and some of the boys sniffled a bit, just because she was crying. Then there was all the jolly fun that goes with a tree.

But soon they took her away. She was so tired that she fell asleep right after they put her back in bed. She dreamed that she saw a flock of sheep with their shepherds on a great plain. Suddenly there was a great light from above and she seemed to hear angels singing.

She awoke. The singing did not stop. She arose and opened the window.

There, in the moonlight under her window stood her Choir Brothers with lighted candles, like the Christmas carol singers of Old England. They were singing this hymn:

"Hark! the Herald Angels sing."

When the verse was finished the Choir Sister leaned out and called down to them:

"Brothers, you have made me love God a whole lot more. A merry Christmas to you all!"

"And to you!" they echoed.

As the Choir Sister crept back to bed she heard the voices of the boys die away in the distance. Then a chime of bells somewhere out in the great snow-white world rang out the very hymn the boys had been singing and the Choir Sister fell asleep.

Whoever feels deeply, feels for all who live.

Her Good Wishes.

Best Remedy For Loss Of Weight

Bear's Emulsion Prescribed by Dr. Gordon For Wasting Diseases.

Dr. John D. Bear, & Bro., Elkton, Va.,
Dear Sirs: For the last three years I have prescribed your Emulsion and have gotten satisfactory results. I find it especially beneficial in cases where the cough has lasted for some time. I also consider it one of the best remedies for wasting diseases, sore lungs, weakening and loss of weight. It has a very great advantage over most preparations of its kind. Instead of being hard on the stomach, it strengthens and promotes appetite. I have found it a very useful remedy and prescribe it whenever I have need of a remedy of this kind, which is very frequent as you see by my prescriptions.

Yours very respectfully,
Dr. W. A. Gordon.
Bear's Emulsion is an unequalled remedy for coughs and colds, and builds up weak lungs and run-down systems. It is the best possible preventive against consumption and extraordinarily beneficial to puny children.

Sold and recommended by Huber's and People's Drug Stores.

PAY $4000 FINES FOR COTTON MEN

Noted Case is Finally Disposed of in New York.

PATTEN ALREADY HAD PAID

All Government Contentions Are Sustained, Making Similar Deals in the Future Impossible.

New York, Dec. 15.—The notorious "cotton corner" of 1909-1910, which was smashed in its infancy by the government, was finally disposed of before Judge Grubb, of Texas, in the United States district court.

Each of the five defendants accused of running the corner entered a plea of nolo contendere and was fined $4000. This was satisfactory to the government and defendants alike.

The case, which was one of the most celebrated under the Sherman anti-trust law, has been in the courts for three years. The original defendants were James A. Patten, former "wheat king," Robert M. Thompson, of New York; Eugene G. Scales, of Texas; Frank B. Hayne and William P. Brown, of New Orleans, and Morris Rothschild, of Woodville, Mass.

The plea of no contention had been agreed upon between the attorneys of the accused and the United States attorney. Patten alone pleaded guilty last February and was fined $4000.

The United States district attorney's office was represented in court by Assistant District Attorney Guller, and with him was former Assistant District Attorney Dorr, who prosecuted the case during the past administration. Former Senator Spooner, who represented Scales, Brown and Hayne, practically appealed for mercy for the defendants at the hands of the court.

His clients, he said, were not the promoters of the corner. They had been hunted up by the spinners of the south. The spinners knew that there would be a short cotton crop in 1909-1910, and wanted to save themselves. They went to the men afterward indicted and asked them to make the combination so that they might be able to buy the material they needed.

"I helped to make the Sherman law," said Senator Spooner, "but there have been times within the past few years when I have been sorry for it. I realize that mistakes were made in the law." The senator seemed much in earnest, but there was an audible smile around the lawyers' table.

Former Assistant District Attorney Dorr told the court that he could not agree with the learned lawyer that the combination of these dealers and brokers and spinners was made through philanthropic motives. He said that the corner was for purely speculative purposes, to take advantage of a short crop and to create artificial prices for cotton for the benefit of the men in the pool. Mr. Dorr said the purposes of the government had been accomplished. The pool had been broken up before any great damage was done, and the defendants had not profited so much, after all.

The main thing, he said, was that all contentions of the government had been sustained by the supreme court and that a future corner in cotton, wheat, corn or any necessity or commodity would be impossible. After the fines were imposed the defendants were paroled in the custody of Senator Spooner until the money was paid.

MINE IN SCHOOL CELLAR

May Be Used as Demonstration to Teach Students.

Shamokin, Pa., Dec. 15.—Two veins of rich anthracite coal were discovered under the site to be occupied by a new $150,000 high school building here.

The fact that the larger vein runs directly through the cellar of the proposed new building led to the springing of a novel idea by Superintendent Joseph W. Howerth, which will likely be adopted by the board of education.

Howerth proposes leaving a portion of the vein exposed, and cementing the cellar in a manner to prevent persons from falling into the vein. Expert mining men will be asked to timber the vein and make miniature breasts, headings and gangways to show how coal is taken from the earth.

The exhibit would be used as a practical demonstration of mining methods for the students.

ACCUSE WOMAN OF POISON PEN NOTES

Held on Charge of Defaming Doctor's Wife.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 15.—Miss Kate Davis, of this city, prominent as a social worker and a moving picture censor, has been held under $1000 bail for her appearance at court as the author of dozens of poison pen letters sent through the mails, attacking Mrs. C. J. Wallace, who is the wife of a leading doctor, a member of the county board of visitation, and a prominent social worker.

Dozens of poison pen letters, which were sent to many prominent women of the Wyoming valley, are to be used against Miss Davis.

These letters were unsigned, and they charged that Mrs. Wallace has left an "odorous trail in her career." The letters made their appearance after Miss Davis had published a signed article attacking Mrs. Wallace. They are all written in the same hand, and Mrs. Wallace alleges that she will be able to prove that Miss Davis wrote each and all of them.

Mrs. Wallace refuses to discuss the "poison pen" letters. Dr. C. J. Wallace declared that "poison pen" letters have been sent to many prominent people attacking Mrs. Wallace, and I have decided to prosecute this case just as far as the law will permit."

HIDES MOTHER'S DEATH GUN

Little Boy, Finding Parent a Suicide, Shields Her by a Trick.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 15.—Mrs. Abram K. Breckenmaker, aged forty years, wife of a saddler in this city, committed suicide by shooting herself in the right temple, after a physician had told her she would have to undergo an operation for internal trouble.

A son, four years old, found his mother lying dead in bed. He took the revolver, which she still held in her hand, and hid it in a trunk.

Later, when he went on the street to play, neighbors saw his blood-stained hands, and an investigation led to the finding of the body.

WORKMEN UNEARTH SKELETON

Police Believe Man Was Murdered and Buried in Quarry.

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 15.—The finding of a human skeleton by workmen employed at the Potomac Valley Line and Stone company's plant, at Pinesburg, eight miles west of Hagerstown, threw the employees into a state of excitement as the bones were uncovered.

One of the workmen found a leg bone protruding from the ground, and excavations revealed more bones, and when they were assembled the skeleton was found to be that of a young man, six feet tall. His skull behind the ear was fractured, as if made by a blunt instrument.

The police believe the skeleton is that of a man who was murdered by a blow on the head and that the murderers buried the corpse.

PRESIDENT NEARLY WELL

But Mr. Wilson Will Only Attend to Pressing Matters at Present.

Washington, Dec. 15.—From the White House came fresh reports of the president's improved condition.

When Dr. Grayson called to look over his patient he found him nearly a well man. The fever which has been a somewhat persistent accompaniment of the cold the president has suffered from has finally abated and his temperature was normal.

In view of his recent illness, President Wilson will not resume the reception of his callers or any other of the burdens of office except the perfunctory duties of such pressing matters as may be brought to his attention.

KILLS HIS FATHER WITH AN AX

Son Says the Devil Commanded the Deed.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Anton Swanson, a devotee of devil worship, in a delirium to a "personal command from the devil," killed his father with an axe in their cottage at 14,233 Avenue N, South Chicago, and laid the body across the back fence.

Later Swanson went to the police station in his nightgown to complain that the devil had left him without instructing him how to dispose of the body, and he could not sleep.

"I had a vision," said Swanson as he sat garbed only in his blood-soaked night gown at police headquarters. "The devil came to me and said, 'Get the axe and kill your father.' So I did. Then the devil said, 'Take the body down to the lake.'"

"I picked up father and started to the lake with him, but when I got to the back fence the devil ran away and left me, and I did not know what to do. So I laid father across the fence and went back to bed."

"But I wasn't satisfied and couldn't sleep, so I came over to tell you about it."

The police found the body with the head split open and the bloody axe just as Swanson had said. They are now trying to learn what peculiar religious cult Swanson has been following and whether its teachings are responsible.

KILLS WIFE IN BED

Believing Her Untrue Husband Choked Her to Death With Handkerchief.

Philadelphia, Dec. 15.—Incarcerated on suspicion that his wife had been false to him while he was absent two months in the south, Fletcher White, a negro, living at 1907 Webster street, slowly strangled the woman to death.

Then, after shaving himself, dressing and eating his breakfast at a nearby restaurant, he walked to the police station and surrendered himself.

The man was promptly placed in a cell, while officers were sent to investigate the truth of his statement, going to the house on Webster street where White and his wife had occupied the second floor, they found the woman lying in bed. She was dead, and had a silk handkerchief twisted tightly around her throat.

White, according to the police, arrived home from the south about three days ago, after an absence of several months, and soon became suspicious of his wife. He brooded over his wrongs and rose without waking the woman and took a silk handkerchief and, suddenly winding it around her throat, choked her slowly to death.

Girls in a Panic as Dormitory Burns.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 15.—Forty-two women teachers and girl students of the Industrial Christian college, at Dawson, N. The building was destroyed in less than thirty minutes.

Medical Advertising Women's Woes

Gettysburg Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidney ills only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Annie Flaherty, 311 Washington St., Gettysburg, Pa., says "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills during the past several years and am willing to tell of my experience for the benefit of other kidney sufferers. I had weak kidneys for a long time and was also subject to headaches and backaches. Doan's Kidney Pills have removed all these troubles. There is no better remedy for the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Medical Advertising Sage Tea Turns Gray Hair Dark

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

Ghoulish Glee.

"From this time on," said he, when the only woman who had ever rejected him passed from his sight, "from this time mine shall be the delight to wreak vengeance on woman. I shall be a shoe salesman, and instead of selling them shoes one size too small, with my persuasive manner I shall make them buy them smaller still. Ha, ha!"

How the End Will Come.

The professor of natural phenomena had acquired a gasoline car. "The day is coming," he said to his class a few weeks later, "when the tire will sag and punctures pierce the inner tube and the casing blister—and then this old earth of ours will have a blowout that may shake the Dog Star from its kennel and hurl the Dipper to kingdom come!"

Learning a Language.

The time to learn a language is when you are young, the younger the better. We learn our own language as children. The older we grow the harder it is, because it means not merely learning by heart a great many words, not merely training the palate and tongue to produce different sounds, but adapting a new attitude of mind.—Atlantic Monthly.

Duty Plainest at First Sight.

There is nothing like the first glance we get at duty, before there has been any special pleading of our affections or inclinations. Duty is never uncertain at first. It is only after we have got involved in the mazes and sophistries of wishing that things are otherwise than they are, that it seems indistinct. Considering a duty is often explaining it away.—F. W. Robertson.
